

will be hosting a

Public Informational Meeting

At Curwensville Civic Center

Thursday, January 18, 2007
6 P.M. – 8 P.M.

This event will give the public an opportunity to learn more about Sunnyside Ethanol and our future development in Curwensville.

Representatives from Sunnyside Ethanol, Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection, Delta-T Corporation, Constellation Energy and others will be present to answer questions.

There will be informational booths set up throughout the evening where the public can have one-on-one interactions with available representatives.

Refreshments will be provided.
